These papers should be from Art History classes but may also be papers produced in other humanities courses like Literature, History or Religion.

Papers should reflect student's abilities in writing, research, and analysis. Please submit papers in the following condition. Papers should be retyped with all grammatical errors corrected. I expect students will have reworked their papers according to other recommendations made by the faculty who originally evaluated them. Papers should be double-spaced.

Research papers should adhere to some recognized style of citation; I prefer Turabian or MLA. Sources must absolutely be cited in the text.

Papers should be saved as pdfs and should be clearly labeled by type: i.e., research, critical or descriptive. The label should also indicate the course and date of original completion. Please submit labeled papers in the ART 297 CANVAS Course through Turnitin.

Illustrations are acceptable but not mandatory. If illustrations are included, please cite them according to Turabian or MLA.

 The papers should be submitted 2 weeks prior to the scheduled review to provide the committee with
