

fall

A-1 131: Basic Design (3)
A-1 132: 2-Dimensional Studies (3)
A-1H 103: Studies of Women
A-1 III (3)
General studies (3)
General studies (3)
[15 credits]

A-1V 225: Introduction to Visual
Communication Design (3)
A-1V 226: Introduction to Typography (3)
A-1V 283: VCD Administration (0)
A-1H Elective (101, 102 or 104) (3)
General studies (3)
General studies (3)
[15 credits]

A-1V 323: In-Media, Visual
Communication Design (3)
A-1V 330: In-Action Design for
Visual Communication (3)
A-1P 230: Painting I (3)

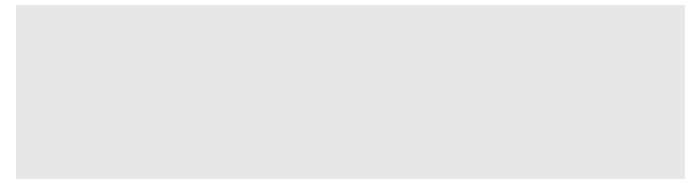

spring

A-1 133: 3-Dimensional Studies (3)
A-1 134: 4-Dimensional
Studies and Color (3)

A-1D 310: In-Media, Design (3)
General studies (3)
General studies (3)
[15 credits]

A-1V 325: Techniques in Visual
Communication Design (3)
A-1H 321: History of Visual
Communication Design (3)
Studio Elective (200+ level) (3)
Area of Concentration (3)
General studies (3)
[15 credits]

Area of Concentration (3)
Upper-division elective (3)
Upper-division elective (3)
General studies (3)
Elective (3)
[15 credits]

What is the difference between a BA / BFA in visual communication design?

A BFA degree is a professional degree offering the opportunity to develop