Chris Lawson receives 40 under 40 award

Chris Lawson (2008, NKU MPA) was a recipient of the Cincinnati Business Courier's Forty under Forty award. Forty Under 40 recognizes the Tri-State's next generation of young leaders and innovators – people who have already made a mark professionally and in the community. This year's class was chosen from more than 470 nominations. This is the 13th year the awards have been given.

Chris and other recipients were honored at a luncheon at Cincinnati Music Hall on September 24, 2009. Chris is the Campaign Director for Community Shares of Greater Cincinnati. Community Shares is a partnership of 27 local nonprofit organizations building social and economic equity and healthy environment in Greater Cincinnati. A graduate of Miami University with a degree in Urban and Regional Planning, Chris has experience as a zoning commissioner, political campaign coordinator/researcher, lending banking client specialist and as an intern with the ACLU & the Cincinnati Collaborative Agreement. While at Miami University he co-founded and led the Planners Network Chapter of Miami University in Cincinnati. He is Vice-Chairman of Mayor Mallory's Young Professionals Kitchen Cabinet: Civic Engagement Committee.
